AZON JOBS DE FULL-T

MORE than 300 permanent jobs are being created at online retail giant Amazon's Rugeley base, bosses have revealed this week.

Some 330 workers originally on temporary contracts at the site in Wheelhouse Lane have been handed permanent contracts. They are among the 800 new jobs nationwide announced by Amazon last October. Until now it had not been revealed how many would be at Rugeley's Towers Business Park site It takes the total staff at the site to more than 1,200. Catherine McDermott, Director of Operations at Amazon.co.uk Ltd, said: "We orig-

"Not only does it give the employees security and stability, but it also shows Amazon's ongoing commitment to the area and their support for community initiatives over the last two years, since they opened."

The firm took on 1,500 temporary workers in Rugeley over Christmas – 500 more posts than it did the previous year.

Amazon has more than 6,000 permanent employees in its UK offices, distribution centres and customer service centres.

The company recently secured a 210,000 sq ft office in Central London to provide additional capacity.

HOW many Scots, hearing this week that Scotland could keep the pound only if it surrendered a degree of sovereignty, were wondering what this arrangement might be called. How about The United Kingdom?

SO FAREWELL, Pete Seeger, the American folk singer who challenged the system and used music as his weapon in the struggle. Sadly, he also spawned a new breed of rebels without a chord. In the Sixties and Seventies every party attracted at least one sad-looking teenager turning up in a US combat jacket inscribed "Che" with a CND badge, Palestinian scarf and a guitar. This unhappy breed would croon We Shall Overcome when everyone knew they were middle-class kids and the only thing they needed to overcome was acne.

LABOUR is pressing for the law to be changed to ban people smoking in cars containing children. They were in power for 13 years. Why didn't they do it then?

OUR changing language. A BBC announcer told us that last night's series Britain's Great War would explain "how the Great War impacted Britain." Coming up, the First World War, impact by impact. Huns impact Belgium. Old Contemptibles impact Huns. Brits impact Loos. Huns impact Loos Huns impact Western Front. Brits impact Same. Yers and Passchendaele. Bolsheviks impact Tsar. Huns impact entire Western Front. Brits impact Hindenburg Line. Armistice impacts Huns. Spanish Flu impacts everybody. And the winner is – American grammar.

I'LL leave it to others to comment on the rights and wrongs of railway union leader Bob Crow for masterminding a tube strike while sunning himself in Brazil while wearing a rather dubious pair of Bermuda shorts.

What I will observe though is that a few years ago Bob was among the speakers at a day to mark the 100th anniversary of the Cradley chainmakers' strike. In the early 20th century, the mainly female workers of the strike. In the early 20th century, the mainly female workers of the Black Country chain industry lived in abject poverty, working back-breaking hours in squalid conditions for a pittance of pay, and it fell to Mary MacArthur, the daughter of a wealthy Scottish draper, to take on their oppressive bosses.

Aside from the fact that Bob turned what should have been a fascinating celebration of Black Country history into a bellicose political rally, he also throughout the duration of his long-winded speech, repeatedly referred to his heroine as 'Mary McCarthy'.

Considering he was such a big admirer, you might have thought he would have least got her name right.

If it were up to me, I would be telling him to ditch the Mini Cheddars and to tuck into some good old pork scratchings like a proper Black Country mon, but each to their own, live and let live and all that. Woolies filled but never replaced

How have the stores fared since they closed five years ago? WILL ACKERMANN has been finding out

IT WAS the store everybody

IT WAS the store everybody knew and loved, a British institution dating back 100 years.

In its heyday, Woolworths was as much a feature of the UK high street as the pavements and lampposts themselves.

But it has now been five years since that fateful day when the nation's favourite retailer went bust and had to close its 807 stores, with the loss of more than 30,000 jobs. The news was mourned by shoppers far and wide, while retail analysts warned it was a sign of worse to come as consumers began tightening their purse strings.

Unfortunately, they were proved right as other high-street giants have faller victim to the recession.

But now that the dust has settled since Woolworths entered administration in 2009, what has become of all its empty units? Sadly, across the country more than 100 of them remain vacant and a than 100 of them remain vacant and a further 68 have been demolished. Others, however, have become home to new shops, many of them bargain stores – showing how shoppers these days want to spend a penny, rather than a pound. Low price bargains are their unique selling points.

Budget supermarket Iceland has occupied the highest number of former Woolies premises nationally, with 59. Close behind with 57 is Willenhall-based Poundland, while in at third is 99p Stores, which has 47. Fourth is B&M Bargains, with 43.

However, many of the stores once adorned with Woolies' iconic red and white signs have been snapped up by other occupants.

Before appointing administrators, the company had outlets in Wolverhampton, Wednesfield, Bilston, Walsall, Bloxwich, Blackheath, Bearwood, Mednesbury, Dudley, Halesowen, Erierley Hill, Kidderminster, Stafford, Lichfield and Cannock.

Of those 15 premises, two are occupied by discount grocery and frozen food retailer Bargain Foods; two are run by rent-to-own retailer BrightHouse, where customers can bag anything from a television set to a three-piece suite in weekly payments; two are Poundlands; with the remaining home to Discount UK, Argos, Heron Frozen Foods, Tesco, a Plaza Mall, a YMCA charity shop, Sports Direct and B&M Bargains.

The final Woolies staff barely had time to pack up their belongings and leave the door, before some units were re-occupied, with others taking longer to attract new owners. Bosses at the Mander Centre, Wolverhampton struggled to fill the vacant unit left by Woolworths, and for three years it sate mpty.

The centre itself was built in the 1960s, but Woolworths had already bentrading long before it opened. The store became one of the biggest Woolworths branches in the West Midlands.

When it closed its doors, up to 40 workers lost their jobs. There was a glimmer of hope when businessman Tony Swannie, who runs the Aldridge based Plaza Malls, suggested he might open another Plaza Mall in the old store, but the deal fell through.

It was only in October 2012 that budget chain Discount UK stepped in to bring the shop back to life. The store, which sells items priced from 28p to £25, created 40 jobs when it took over the vacant unit.

My work took me to Papua New Guinea, Tasmania, New South Wales, Victoria and South Australia and my travels required constant contact with my base in Melbourne so I had to communicate in a clear and recmunicate in a clear and recmunicate in a clear and recognised accent.

Once, while stopping overnight at a motel in Alice Springs I overheard a young woman talking in a West Midlands accent which was music to my ears. It turned out it was the daughter of a friend of mine, who lived near me in Mill Lane, Wednesfield.

If it had not been for her accent we would never have

Improvements are labelled pointless

HAVING lived in Rugeley for more than 40 years, I've noticed an increase in hold-ups along Horse Fair, mostly caused by the road 'improvements' over recent years, including various sets of lights, crossings and of course Globe island.

While travelling to Lichfield via Horse Fair recently the traffic lights at Wetherspoons were on red and traffic tailed back to the Globe island. Due to roadworks only one lane was open each way. An emergency ambulance was trying to get to the Armitage Road junction. This was impossible due to the volume of non-moving traffic as there was nowhere for anyone to move out of the way, so the ambulance had to wait for the green light and the traffic to move.

Let's hope the patient was reached and treated in time, but no doubt this will be the norm now that the experts have again forced unwanted and pointless 'improvements' on us.

Increasing debt on whim

WILLI of Cannock (January 16) rightly castigates HS2 but then spoils it by suggesting that George Adamson's idea for nationalising the M6 Toll is a good one. As it cost £900m to build, Labour obviously expect the taxpayer to fund this bright idea. Typical of them to increase the debt pile on a whim. In just over 40 years time the toll road will revert to the taxpayer free so why borrow the money to buy it now?

THE Tory-run county council has announced cuts of £109m to its services. The Express & Star said: "Jobs are at risk, street lights will go out and buildings will be sold off...bosses refused to rule out redundancies."

Extra pressure to be put on families

WITH the decision made on closing council-run day centres and youth clubs, I feel the cost to families and carers will have great impact. The councillors have no idea what they are doing, it's all in the name of saving money.

Many parents or carers are in their 70s and 80s looking after adults in their 40s and 50s. This is just an accident waiting to happen with private providers wanting to charge 265 a day for care. Not many will be able to afford care.

The pressure this will put on families just doesn't bear thinking about, and to close the youth clubs this is just asking for trouble. There is nowhere for the teenagers to go. When they turn to drink and drugs and are getting into trouble evenue of it, it will be 'who would have thought it'. e of it, it will be 'who would have thought it'

Nazi-themed stag do was no laughing matter

AFTER reading the article about Aidan Burley's Nazi-themed escapade, it is clear there are still a lot of questions to be answered about those events.

Ian Austin MP's comments within the same article were written with compassion and quiet dignity and fully ex-

Mr Austin reminds us that the Nazis were not figures of fun. They were evil murders that were responsible for millions of deaths and this country, and many people from our community, fought long and hard to rid the world of this terror. Mr Burley might think it was a laughing matter but I for one, do not. but I, for one, do not

Thousands in pledge to help little Margot

Martini, who is battling a rare form of leukaemia, just keeps on coming as people across the country join the Margot's family said they were overwhelmed by the response to the appeal to find her a stem cell match.

More than 40,000 people have now registered with charity Delete Blood Cancer to see if they could help Margot by requesting swabbing packs.

Thousands more have seen her appeal on social media, while up to 1,000 people are expected at a swabbing day being held in Wolverhampton later this month.

Margot's mother Vicki, aged 38, is originally from Essington and said there has been great support in the West Midlands.

Mrs Martini recalled the moment that Margot was diagnosed with a rare form of leukaemia aged just 14 months. She said: "I just had a sixth sense that something was wrong.

"I took her to the doctors at 2pm one day and by 2am, I had got a child with leukaemia who was in an induced coma. It was just completely devastating.

"But you can't let it take hold of you because you see your child being so strong and fighting and you have to fight alongside them."

Margot was in an induced coma for around 11 days and then started chemotherapy. She has now finished her third round of treatment at Great

Dental practice all smiles after win

Principal dentist Mark Emms and his team at the award-winning Priors Dental Practice in Penkridge

THERE are smiles all round at a dental practice which has picked up two prestigious gongs.

The Priors Dental Practice in Pinfold Lane, Penkridge, was named as the best orthodontic practice 2013 at The Private Dentistry National Awards in London and the best practice in the Midlands at the Dentistry Awards. It was also shortlisted for best implant practice at the Private Dentistry National Awards ceremony. Judges were particularly impressed with the standards of clinical excellence and paid special recognition to the philosophy for good customer care.

Practice manager Lindsey Edwards said: "We are thrilled to win these national awards It is great credit to the team of staff and to the owner Mark Emms."

A MOTORING body has welcomed figures which show more drivers using the M6 Toll.

Bosses say soaring popularity of the pay-as-you-go road is partly down to more haulage companies still using it following a free trial, while other motorists continue to be put off by roadworks on the M6.

From October to December last year the average number of vehicles using the 27-mile stretch was up 12.1 per cent to 41,889 compared to the same cent to 41,889 compared to the same quarter in 2012.

Last July operators Midland Expressway gave members of the Road Haulage Association free use as an experiment aimed at boosting the number of lorries using it. The trial month resulted in an extra 1,000 HGV journess a day.

Professor Stephen Glaister, director of the RAC Foundation, said: "It is good to see the number of drivers using this piece of infrastructure creeping back up. The operators are right to say a recovering economy and road works on the original M6 will drive traffic on to the toll road, but ultimately demand comes down to pricing."

Despite the increase, some hauliers said they were still avoiding the M6 Toll because of the cost. Steve Grice, transport manager at Winfield Transport in Hawks Green, Cannock, said. "Our vehicles have only used the route three times since it opened."

in Hednesford with a care home.

The Globe in East Cannock Road has been closed for a number of years and its windows have been boarded up. Travellers have in the past moved on to its car park.

Proposals have been submitted to knock it down and build a care home, as well as a shop and five flats. Car parking is also included within the scheme.

If given the go ahead, the application, put forward by Steven Chahal Singh, would create 18 jobs.

Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson well-comed the scheme. He said:

Cadfael, 9pm Dramatised from the novel of the late Ellis Of the late Lind Peters, the 90 minute film begins with pilgrims being brought to Shrewsbury Abbey after they are suspected of being behind the discovery of a rotting corpse of an old man in a sack. Imprisoning them all within the Abbey walls, Cadfael renders the corpse down to its bones to discover the cause of murder. Among the resentful pilgrims are a couple of young thieves Melangell (Vanity Fair's Natasha Little) and her brother Walter (Lee

Pick of the Week

Visionary Liz fails to see the upcoming trouble

irector Danny Boyle won critical acclaim for movies such as Trainspotting and 28 Days Later, an Oscar for Slumdog Millionarie, and unofficial national treasure status for overseeing the 2012 Olympic Opening Ceremony.

But in the unlikely event that he still

But in the unlikely event that he still feels a little underappreciated, maybe he should listen to what Brit Marling has to say about him.

The actress, whose credits include The East and Arbitrage, gushes: "Darny, you feel, has the kind of curious mind and unstoppable heart that are capable of anything – exploring a distant galaxy and building a new world from scratch there for instance.

"So it's lucky for us he chose to be a storyteller in a time where we need them so desperately – to make sense of the world we are living in and how to navigate it." Given that glowing endorsement, it's no surprise that Marling signed on for Boyle's latest project, police comedydrama Babylon.

Written by Peep Show and Fresh Meat veterans Sam Bain and Jesse

Armstrong (Marling has high praise for them as well—"such great writers it's borderline dangerous"), it boats!
James Nesbitt at the head of an impressive cast as Chiel Constable Richard Miller, who realises that the London police force could do with a bit of a public image revamp.

And he think emerican perumodia.

And he thinks American new-media visionary Liz Garvey (Marling) is just the woman to do it. She believes that in an era of rolling news, social media and members of the public potentially filming everything on their phones, it's more important than ever for the cops to be open and transparent, an idea that Marling found intriguing.

"Danny and I spoke on the phone and I loved how he saw the story developing, and the questions he wanted to ask about how technology wanted to ask about now technology and the transparency it creates is changing all of our lives. How does law enforcement change when a criminal is using Twitter or Instagram? What's the future of the public's involvement in law enforcement as a result?

"And how do you create a career girl that isn't a typical ball-buster but is multi-faceted?"

Luckily, she thinks the writers cracked it. "I think [Liz] is a very interesting person, because she's been successful very young, and she's used to getting her way and things moving quickly, And I think she suddenly moves into this new job and it's not quite what she expected, and here's all sortis of political intringue, and certain people who don't want there, and she realless that changing things is going to be much more difficult than she thought.

Unifoun trians her brought.

It's not just her new colleagues

Jim Davidson: At Least I'm Not Boring Channel 5, 9pm

What a difference a year makes. Twelve months ago, Jim Davidson was fending off police allegations, but he's won so much public favour since then that he was recently crowned winner of the latest edition of Celebrity Big Brother. While he might have had his fair share of arguments in the house, what you see is definitely what you get with Jim – an opinionated, honest man with whom you'll always know where you stand. This profile of the comedian charts his rise to fame after appearing on talent show New Faces in 1976, before going to on to become a household name hosting BBC favourites Big Break and The institution, it's arguably launched a few quiz questions of its own, including "who was the first pleasants of its own, including who was the inser-person to win a million?" (Answer: future Egghead Judith Keppel.) But which contestants and moments stand out for host Chris Tarrant? Well, re're about to find out, as following the two celebrity specials that brought down the curtain on the hugely successful series, he looks back over nearly 16 years of 'Millionaire'. As you'd expect Charles Ingram, the so-called 'Coughing Major', who was accused of cheating his way to the top prize, features - which should also remind us that at its height. WWTBAM was so popular, even a documentary about Ingram was watched by an impressive 17 million viewers.

TUESDAY

Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? Chris's Final ITV, 8pm Who Wants to Be a Millionaire is such a TV

Inside the Animal Mind

BBC2, 9pm
Here's a bit of good news for anyone who saw school or the office primarily as a place to meet your friends and have a laugh - the most intelligent animals on the planet are also the most social. In the last in this fascinating series, Chris Packham finds out why that is by studying one of the cleverest animals of all – the dolphin. He joins them for a swim, explores their language and also sees how they can recognise themselves in the mirror, suggesting they don't all look alike after all. Chris also learns more about how elephants mourn their dead, and why just because animals are social, it doesn't mean they all get along, as chimps can be more than a little two-faced.

WEDNESDAY Line of Duty BBC2, 9pm

Fans of this series could be forgiven rans of this series could be rorgivel for thinking it was a one-hit wonder – it's almost two years since the first run introduced viewers to straight-arrow cop Steve Arnott and his colleagues. But series writer and creator Jed Mercurio was clearly taking his time in crafting what promises to be a nail-biting follow-up. This time, Arnott and co will be investigating DI Lindsay Denton (Keeley Hawes). who is the sole survivor of a police convov ambushed while escorting a protected witness.

Arnott immediately suspect she tipped the perpetrators off - but proving it may be difficult. Martin Compston, Vicky McClure and Adrian Dunbar are among those returning to the drama, while Call the Midwife's Jessica Raine joins the cast as a rookie detective constable.

offerings out there is the fact it's shot in a flyon-the-wall documentary style. The cast, which includes Fay Ripley (Cold Feet), Damien Molony (Ripper Street) and Clare-Hope Ashitey (Children of Men), created their own dialogue based on a detailed plot description. Set in London each episode is a self-contained story beginning with a news report. We then

THURSDAY The Kidnapping of Shergar

Channel 5, 8pm

The mystery of Lord Lucan's disappearance in 1974, and the fate of champion racehorse Shergar have captured the public's imagination for decades A few months after the former case was addressed in an ITV drama, we now get this equine detective story. The 1981 Derby winner was kidnapped from his home at County Kildare's Ballymany Stud in February 1983 by a masked gang. They held staff at gunpoint and Shergar was taken away in a horse trailer and never seen again. Here film-makers chat to key witnesses about the theft, and paint a picture of one of the most audacious thefts in history

FRIDAY Student Nurses: Bedpans and Bandages

Across the country, a new generation of nurses are training up to take on the responsibility of a nation's health and well-being. It's a lot of pressure, and with ever-greater demands since the early days of the NHS, it's harder to qualify now than ever before. So this documentary will make for very interesting viewing indeed, as cameras follow trainee nurses in Birmingham and Manchester, showing the challenges they face on a daily basis as they juggle academic study with their personal life and work on the wards. In the first instalment, 24-yearold student Alistair discusses being one of a growing number of men taking up a career in nursing, while 21-year-old Helen nears the end of her three-year degree to become a children's dington in central London, with Cranfield in rural Buckinghamshire as well as Sunderland in the far north of England?

Qashqai a modern motoring

The answer is one of the biggest success stories in modern motoring, in the shape of the Nissan Qashqai, a car that almost by itself started a new trend for cars which look tall and tough but are as easy to park as a hatchback and about as economical to run. Since the first one rolled off the production line in Sunderland in 2007, more than 1,700,000 have been built.

Taking the pressure from what the pop in-dustry calls 'that second, difficult album', the team at Nissan's European design centre in Paddington did what all the research was telling them. Existing Qashqai owners loved their cars but wouldn't mind a bit more style, a dash of extra technology and, please, keep a tight rein on running costs. So the new Qashqai looks like an entirely logical development of the first car.

Allied to upgraded petrol and diesel en-gines, this sharper-suited Qashqai now slips below the road tax barrier in its most frugal version, and all the rest use less fuel

For the way it feels on the road we have the 1,000-strong team at Nissan's techni-cal centre in Cranfield to thank. And what a Cashqair ve done.

Qashqai customers told the Nissan pollsters they didn't want a Golf GTI, thank you, but something that made them feel

Jaguar still producing the goods

Graham Breeze Motoring writer graham.breeze@ shropshirestar.co.uk

THE latest XJ model from Jaguar sits right at the top of the luxury saloon car market. It's hard to imagine that Jaguar could have improved on the flagship saloon but they have - with the introduction of a longer wheel based option with even more back-seat luxury than ever before.

The 2014 model is the latest in a long line of luxurious Jaguar sports saloons, incorporating enhanced rear cabin luxury features, comfort and in-car technology to create a truly elegant and contemporary luxury car.

Jaguar has long-dominated the luxury sector and with the brand enjoying remarkable success at the moment bosses have not been shy when it comes to improving the quality of the offering.

On test was the XJ Portfolio LWB which leaves showrooms at £70,975 though the model on test would have set you back a further £16,000.

The extra cash gives you racing red exterior colour, electric memory seats, the premium rear seat package, top of the range audio package, advances cruise control and 20" polished wheels.

Enhanced

The long-wheelbase models feature enhanced rear cabin luxury features which include 'airline' style reclining seats with massage function, increased headroom, fold-out business tables and a re-tuned rear suspension set-up to enhance rear seat ride comfort.

The entertainment system has been enhanced with a rear seat entertainment package featuring two hi-resolution touchscreens. This makes the model even more attractive to not only the business user, wishing to stay in touch while on the road but anyone simply looking to be entertained on the

In the back or up-front the luxurious feel is underlined by soft grain leather, and a wide choice of veneers reminding the passenger that this is a Jaguar. Front seat enhancements include massage functions for each seat.

Through the use of the front touchscreen, any one of the four electric seats can be selected and then fully controlled via the driver's seat switches.

An eight-speed automatic transmission brings out the smooth performance of the 3.0litre V6 Turbo Diesel XJ and you still get comfort in low-speed driving environments.

Detecting an enthusiastic driving style, the transmission will automatically make the gearshifts more aggressive and move the shift-up a point higher in the rev range. Steering wheel-mounted gearshift paddles give the driver higher levels of control. There's a top speed of 155mph and 0-60mph in just six seconds with barely a whisper of noise inside the cabin while Jaguar claim fuel consumption figures of 44 8 means the combined exist.

The competition is growing and improving all the time but there's no denying that Jaguar can still produce the goods and this model in a shining example.

of 44.8mpg on the combined cycle.

Special edition range now in dealerships

Kia has confirmed the arrival in UK dealerships of the new VR7 special edition range of its Picanto, Rio and cee'd models.

Offering a high level of standard specification across all models, the VR7 range is also available with discounts of up to £1,000, low rate 4.9 per cent APR finance deals and the option of a Care-3 all-inclusive servicing package for just £99.

The Kia Care-3 all-inclusive servicing package provides retail customers inflation-proof servicing costs for the first three services and is available for just £99 on the VR7 range. Care-3 is also fully transferable to subsequent owners.

All VR7 models share the same key specification. This includes interior extras such as air con-ditioning, leather-trimmed steering wheel and gearshift, Bluetooth connectivity and USB & AUX ports. A selection of exterior features such as alloy wheels, reversing sensors, electrically-adjustable heated door mirrors and electric front and rear (where applicable) windows are also included.

Not only does the range offer excellent value, it is available with finance at a great rate of 4.9 per cent. A £1,000 Kia Access Deposit Contribution is also available on the pro_cee'd, cee'd five-door and cee'd Sportswagon versions.

The Picanto three-door VR7 1.0 68bhp and Picanto five-door VR7 1.0 84bhp both come with all the ranges standard features. Both Picanto models also come with a host of other safety features such as ABS with Electronic Brakeforce Dis-tribution (ESB), Brake-Assist System (BAS), Electronic Stability Control (ESC), Vehicle Stability Management (VSM), six airbags and Hill-start Assist control (HAC).

The Picanto range also includes a selection of handles, chrome exterior door handles, premium black upholstery and a black radiator grille. With an offer price for the three-door Picanto of £8,795 and five-door Picanto at £8.995, both models in the 'VR7' range give customer savings of £750.

The VR7 Rio range includes models of Rio three-door and five-door 1.25 84bhp and Rio five-door 1.1 CRDi 74bhp, all with savings of £1000. All the Rio models include the standard added features along with exterior extras such as body-colour bumpers, exterior door handles and door mirrors The Rio VR7 range also has the safety features of ESC, VSM, HAC and Anti-theft Alarm System.

The VR7 range is available on the pro_cee'd 1.4 98bhp, cee'd 5 1.4 98bhp and 1.4 CRDi 89bhp and the cee'd Sportswagon 1.4 98bhp. The pro_cee'd VR7 1.4 98bhp, starting at £13,495, comes with all of the standard VR7 pack-as well 16in alloy wheels, steering wheelmounted controls and a rear spoiler - all with a customer saving of £1,000.

The cee'd five-door and cee'd Sportswagon models also come with a fantastic trim level. This gives customers the exterior extras of a real spoiler, projection headlights, front fog lights and daytime running lights. The safety features which are added on top of the range's standard extras include emergency stop signalling, ESC, VSM, ABS (Anti Brake System) and finally HAC.

The cee'd Sportswagon VR7 1.4 98bhp also comes with a luggage under-floor box and side tray, luggage 12V power outlet and roof rails.

Special edition marks 30 years of Fiat Panda 4x4

Fiat is celebrating 30 years and 500,000 sales of its iconic all-wheel drive city car with the special edition Fiat Panda 4X4 Antarctica.

Designed to stand out from the crowd, the Antarctica is only available in white with a black roof, orange detailing, diamond-finish 15-inch alloy wheels and special badges.

Inside, the Fiat Panda 4X4 Antarctica features grey and orange upholstery with numerous additional standard feaglass, a height adjustable driver's seat and three-passenger rear seat with 60:40 split/folding backrests. As with all examples of the FIAT Panda 4X4 sold in the UK, the Antarctica edition also fea-tures air conditioning, ESC stability control, an electronic locking differential (ELD), specially tuned suspension, mud-and-snow tyres and rugged bodywork protection all as standard.

Powered either by Fiat's award-winning 85hp 0.9 TwinAir petrol engine or a 75hp 1.3-litre MultiJet II turbo diesel engine, the Fiat Panda 4X4 Antarctica offers a unique combination of exceptionally low running costs and genuine off-road capability which is unmatched by any competitor vehicle.

Just 300 examples of the Fiat Panda 4X4 Antarctica will be built for the UK market priced from £14,895 on-the-

Meanwhile demand for the standard Fiat Panda 4X4, recently named '2014 Mini 4X4' by the UK's off-road enthusiast publication, 4X4 Magazine, and Top Gear magazine's SUV of the Year 2012, has been so strong that a waiting list has developed. Customers who order now new '14' registration plate. In the interim, the exciting new limited edition Fiat Panda 4X4 Antarctica will be available to help satisfy this demand. Elena Bernardelli, marketing director Fiat Group Automobiles UK, commented: "Not only has the Fiat Panda 4X4 been a huge success all over Europe for the past 30 years, it's in huge demand in the UK too. British buyers really appreciate its nimbleness and efficiency, combined with its immense all-weather capability, all wrapped up in a distinctive and unmistakably Italian package. The new Panda 4X4 Antarctica – with its extra equipment, unique styling features and strictly limited numbers - should prove even more appealing so potential buyers will need to be quick to snap one up this winter!

Luxury hatchback gets upgrade and costs less

Lexus is making the most comprehensive package of improvements yet to the CT 200h range, with styling, handling and equipment changes that will make the market's only full hybrid luxury hatchback an even more appealing proposition.

The upgrades are matched by a strengthening of the CT 200h's impressive value, with significant reductions in prices and attractive finance options that open up the prospect of Lexus ownership to many more customers.

The 2014 CT 200h range is available from £20,995 for the entry level S model, a £1,000 reduction; elsewhere in the six-strong line-up, prices have fallen by as much as £1,500.

The new model arrives accompanied by excellent finance offers to make purchase even more available from just £219 per month, and the high specification Advance model from £259 per month through Lexus Business Drive contract The F Sport model adopts the same mesh pattern grill as the new IS F Sport saloon. It also

Of course the showroom price tag is only one aspect of the CT 200h's exceptional cost of ownership profile. With CO2emissions across the range falling below the 100g/km threshold - and with a new class-leading low of 82g/km for the S version – the CT 200h no charge for annual Vehicle Excise Duty. For business users this also secures the lowest band for benefit-in-kind taxation, at 10 per cent for the first year.

The smooth, quiet and supremely refined per-formance of the Lexus Hybrid Drive system that powers the CT 200h (which complies with forth-coming Euro 6 emissions standards) also keeps gains a new rear spoiler with integrated air ducts. New detailing, wheel designs and a shark's fin antenna have also been introduced across the CT

Going beyond visual changes, the CT 200h benefits from strategic changes under the skin to deliver better ride quality, stability and handling. The current range of six model grades – S, SE, Advance, Luxury, F Sport and Premier – is retained, with the addition of some new equipment features and options.

A wealth of new features are provided with no increase in the model's on-the-road price. Full details of the across-the-board improvements to the CT 200h will be revealed soon.

He was stripped of the No.10 shirt and handed No.36 in the summer – a hint he was not part of Lambert's long-term plans – and has since lost it to Daniel Johnson.

Other players given numbers in the 30s – Shay Given, Alan Hutton Darren Bent and Stephen Ireland – have been surplus to requirements. But the manager insisted N'Zogbia can turn his Villa career around once he is fit again.

"No, you're looking for something that's not there, he said, when quizzed if N'Zogbia's future related to his squad number. "The lad's hurt his Achilles and we've got to get him back fit. He's doing really well."

Change was always on cards — Jackett

KENNY JACKETT has admitted he always wanted to change Wolves' forward line in the January window and isn't concerned about losing three strikers.

In a whirlwind final day of the window on Friday,
Wolves sold Leigh Griffiths to Celtic for £1m and loaned Kevin Doyle to QPR and Bjorn Sigurdarson to Norwegian club Molde.

In addition, keeper Wayne Hennessey joined Crystal Palace for £3m and 18-year-old centre-back Kortney Hause was signed from Wy-combe combe.

Head coach Jackett had already signed Nouha Dicko – who scored his second in three games after Kevin McDonald opened the scoring in Saturday's 2-0 win against Bradford – and Leon Clarke to cover the shortfall.

But he is still one forward short with youngster Liam

McAlinden the only other attacker.
Wolves chalked up a fourth successive win which put them up to second for the first time since New Year's Day after Leyton Orient lost 2-1 at Rotherham. Doyle scored in Rangers' 3-3 draw against Burnley.
Jackett is happy with the current strikeforce and isn't worried about being short of numbers up front.

Smith in running for top manager

WALSALL boss Dean Smith is in the running as the League One manager of the month for January. Smith is one of four bosses nominated for the award by league sponsors SkyBet after establishing the Saddlers as genuine contenders for the third tier play-offs. The Saddlers boss is fighting it out with Colchester United's Joe Dunne and the two who have stayed out in front in the battle for automatic promotion, Orient's Russell Slade and Brentford's Mark Warburton.

Chris Brunt's left foot has been unlocking defences for his teammates, but in the fourth minute he cut out the middle man.
Accepting a fourth-minute Liam Ridgewell free-kick, Brunt's first touch was not the best but his second was memorable, a sweet diagonal drive which seemed to accelerate the closer it got to its target to defeat a startled Brad Guzan.

And off we went on a riotous first half which held Villa Park spellbound by the kind of derby which went out of fashion with Christmas Day football.

Three minutes later, Albion were two up as Villa were caught napping at a free-kick. James Morrison's sudden dart forward was spotted by Brunt and the cross which followed deflected in off Fabian Delph's thigh.

AT last, then, Kenny Jackett's team were able to make headway in their quest for automatic promotion and a return to the top two more than made up for the slight anti-climax of a blank day for the returned Clarke.

Wolves have been getting better and playing well but in choosing to fix what wasn't broken, Jackett

The pair shared the opening four legs before Anderson made his move, taking the fifth with the aid of a 180 before defying a maximum reply from Jones.
Anderson broke Jones' though in the next for a 4-2 lead but the Wednesfield darter broke back, punishing two missed darts at tops from the Scot.

Jones hit another 180 as he levelled, but Anderson found another gear with 161 or a 12-darter to move 5-4 up and then finishing the next leg in 14 to win.

We got bored at the Bantams — McDonal

KEVIN McDonald has been boasting that Wolves found it so easy in their league match against Bradford on Saturday that his team mates got bored and that the score should have been much higher for Jacketts' squad.

McDonald scored his second goal in as many games and Nouha Dicko's second in three clinched a routine away victory against the 10-man Bantams as Kenny Jackett's side moved from the playoffs zone back in to the automatic promotion places in League One

But although the visitors hit the wood-work in isolated breaks in either half,

Wolves should have scored several more than they did after Dicko, Richard Stearman, Bakary Sako and Leon Clarke all went close in a match-up that turned one-sided in the second period after Nathan Doyle's 28th-minute sending off for two bookable offences left the Brad ford side a player down and having to finish the rest of the game with just 10 men.

"We should have won four or five nil and on another day we would have done," boasted McDonald, who had another excellent game at the weekend.

"We started to get bored of the ball late on – it was too easy in the end.

"We started to pass the ball around and we started to give it away too easily.

New boy backed by Smith

BOSS Rob Smith is backing new-boy Paul Sullivan to follow in Elliott Durrell's footsteps after Hednesford bagged the Chasetown star. Durrell, who has 23 goals from midfield this season, joined Wrexham last week and Smith believes Sullivan can make a similar impact. He said: "We are delighted to beat a number of high-level sides to the signature of Paul. "Paul's a great prospect and fits the profile of young, hungry players that we already have at the club. On a heavy pitch a draw was probably a fair result, although Hednesford will be kicking themselves for giving up the opportunity on offer. The opening few minutes were a frantic affair with both sides having chances to take the lead.

First Altrincham's Damian Reeves saw his effort cleared off the line by John Disney, after Dan Crane had made a good save from the frontman, whilst at the other end Town's Marvin Robinson blazed over when only 12 yards. only 12 yards.

Hednesford were indebted to Crane for keeping the scores level in the 38th minute when Simon Richman suddenly found himself through one-on-one with the shot-stopper.

Two minutes before the halftime whistle the home side should have perhaps been ahead. John Disney was played in down the right and his cross found Neil Harvey who should have found the back of the net from just six-yards out.
